Scene 3

THE GAME DAY GATHERING

In this scene, we're taken into a living room where a group of friends is gathered, intensely watching a football match. Each one holds a bottle of Kamenitza, freshly opened. The excitement is palpable, especially as the game is about to enter the nail-biting penalty phase. The camera pans across the group and notices an unopened beer left in front of an empty spot on the couch.

One of the friends, caught up in the moment, looks towards the kitchen and yells with a mix of urgency and excitement:

“Come, don’t miss the penalties!”

- He pats the empty seat beside him, signaling for someone to hurry up and join.
