FACES OF AUTHENTICITY

- Our cast will be the faces of real life - unique, relatable, and brimming with character. We're looking for individuals who can bring authenticity to the screen, whose presence feels natural, not staged. They are the everyday heroes, the neighbors, the friends, and the family members who bring our story to life. Typical and unique. Imperfect but positive.

Hug

In our TVC, we aim to weave a narrative centered around intimacy, capturing the essence of human connections. This moments sets the tone for the entire commercial, highlighting the theme of closeness and warmth. As the narrative progresses, we subtly showcase the intimacy within a family through small, yet significant gestures like a gentle touch, shared smiles.Parallel to this, the commercial also focuses on the bonds of friendship. Scenes of friends leaning in close

Throughout the commercial, careful attention is paid to camera work, lighting, and music, each element chosen to enhance the emotional depth and authenticity of these intimate moments. We steer clear of clichéd representations, focusing instead on natural, relatable interactions that resonate with the audience. The aim is to evoke an emotional response, connecting the viewer to the warmth of human relationships and subtly tying these moments back to the brand. This approach not only highlights the diversity in intimate relationships, from romantic to familial and platonic, but also leaves a lasting, positive impression on the viewer, associating the brand with life's warm, intimate moments.
