In our quest to create a truly authentic and resonant campaign for Kamenitza, the casting process plays a pivotal role. We are not just looking for actors; we are seeking real beer enthusiasts, individuals who embody the spirit and culture of the beer world. These are people for whom beer is not just a beverage, but a part of their lifestyle, a symbol of relaxation, camaraderie, and enjoyment

In addition to their love for beer, we are seeking individuals with a strong connection to Bulgarian culture and traditions. Kamenitza is not just a beer; it's a part of Bulgaria's heritage. Therefore, our ideal candidates are those who can embody this cultural connection, individuals who can portray the warmth, hospitality, and communal spirit that Kamenitza represents.

Our casting process will also involve a series of interviews and screen tests to ensure that our chosen individuals are comfortable in front of the camera and can convey their genuine love for beer in a way that feels natural and engaging. We are not looking for perfection in acting skills; instead, we prioritize authenticity and a genuine connection to the beer culture.

In summary, our casting approach for the Kamenitza campaign is about finding real people with a real passion for beer. We believe that by featuring genuine beer lovers and enthusiasts, we can create a campaign that resonates deeply with our audience, bringing to life the true spirit of Kamenitza and the rich beer culture it represents.

- We'll be shooting in real locations, capturing the essence of Bulgarian life away from clichéd American sets. Our locations will be as authentic as our stories - rural landscapes, cozy homes, and community spaces that resonate with our audience. These are the places where real life happens, and where Kamenitza naturally belongs.
