

A pixelated, black and white graphic of the letters 'GO'. The letters are thick and blocky, with a jagged, digital edge. The 'G' and 'O' are connected, with a small gap between them. The background is white, and the letters are black with some gray shading to give it a 3D or pixelated appearance.

A pixelated, black and white graphic of the letters 'GG'. The letters are rendered in a bold, blocky font with a high-contrast, dithered appearance. The 'G's are slightly stylized, with the first 'G' having a small vertical stroke extending downwards. The overall effect is reminiscent of early digital art or a low-resolution scan of a logo.
